

Property Tax Exemptions

A property tax exemption excludes all or part of a property's value from property taxation, ultimately resulting in lower property taxes. A "Partial" exemption excludes a part of the value from taxation and can exclude all of the value of a property from taxation if the exemption amount exceeds the market value (i.e., homestead exemption). An "Absolute" or "Total" exemption excludes the entire property from taxation (i.e., churches).

Residence Homestead Exemption

To qualify, you must own and reside in your home on the date you request the exemption and cannot claim a homestead exemption on any other property. You may exceed the two year limit if you are in military service serving outside of the United States or live in a facility providing services related to health, infirmity or aging. Applications cannot be filed before the date you qualify for the exemption. If you are a single or married homeowner filing together, you may be eligible to apply online.

Each individual owner, excluding married couples, residing on the property must complete a separate application to qualify for an exemption for his or her interest in the property. Age 65 or Older Homestead Exemption

You may qualify for this exemption on the date you become age 65.

If you qualify for the 65 or Older Exemption, there is a property tax "ceiling" that automatically limits School taxes to the amount you paid in the year that you qualified for the homestead and the 65 or Older exemption. A County, City, or Junior College may also limit taxes for the 65 or Older Exemption if they adopt a tax ceiling. Tax ceiling amounts can increase if you add improvements to your home (i.e., adding a garage, room, or pool). In addition, 65 or Older homeowners who purchase or move into a different home in Texas may also transfer the percentage of school taxes paid, based on the former home's school tax ceiling. This is commonly referred to as a Ceiling Transfer. To transfer your tax ceiling for the purposes of County, City, or Junior College District taxes, however, you must move to another home within the same taxing unit. You must request a certificate from the Appraisal District for the former home and take it to the Appraisal District for the new home, if located a different district.

You may not receive both the Age 65 or Older and Disabled Person exemption from the same taxing unit in the same tax year, however, you may receive both exemptions from different taxing units. Please contact the Appraisal District if you believe you qualify.

Surviving Spouse of a Person who Received the 65 or Older Exemption

If qualified, a Surviving Spouse may receive an extension of the Age 65 or Older exemption and the tax ceiling. To qualify, your deceased spouse must have been receiving the 65 or Older exemption on the residence homestead or would have applied and qualified before the spouse's death. The Surviving Spouse must have been age 55 or older on the date of the spouse's death. You must have ownership in the home and proof of death of your spouse.

Disabled Person Homestead Exemption

You may receive the Disabled Person exemption immediately upon qualification of the exemption. You are eligible for this exemption if you are unable to engage in any substantial gainful work because of a physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death, or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months; or you are 55 years old and blind and unable to engage in your previous work because of the blindness. To automatically qualify, you must meet the Social Security definition for disabled and receive disability benefits under the Federal-Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance Program administered by the Social Security Administration. To verify your eligibility, you must provide a current dated statement from the Social Security Administration showing that you are disabled and the date your disability began. Disability benefits from any other program do not automatically qualify you for this exemption. You do not have to receive disability benefits to qualify, but you must meet the Social Security definition for disabled. If you are not receiving Social Security benefits, then you must have your physician complete the DCAD "Physician's Statement" form available on this site or you may contact Customer Service at 214-631-0910.

If qualified, a Surviving Spouse may receive an extension of the tax ceiling. To qualify, your deceased spouse must have been receiving the Disabled Person exemption on the residence homestead. The Surviving Spouse must have been age 55 or older on the date of the spouse's death. You must have ownership in the property and proof of death of your spouse. Residence Homestead Exemption for Disabled Veteran with 100% Disability

You qualify for this exemption if you are a disabled veteran who receives from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or its successor 100 percent disability compensation due to a service-connected disability and a rating of 100 percent disability or of individual unemployability. Beginning 2009, this entitles you to an exemption of the total appraised value of your residence homestead.

An exemption application must be completed and accompanied with a copy of your V.A. award letter or other document from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs showing 100 percent disability compensation due to a service-connected disability and a rating of 100 percent disabled or individual unemployability.

A surviving spouse does qualify for the 100% Disabled Veteran Homestead Exemption, but surviving child does not qualify.

Donated Residence Homestead of Partially Disabled Veteran or Surviving Spouse of Disabled Veteran who qualified for Donated Residence Homestead

A disabled veteran is allowed an exemption equal to his or her disability rating (if less than 100 percent) on a residence homestead donated by a charitable organization. The same percentage exemption extends to the surviving spouse if certain conditions are met.

Surviving Spouse of Member of Armed Forces Killed in Line of Duty or a First Responder Killed in Line of Duty

A surviving spouse of a member of the U.S. armed services killed or fatally injured in the line of duty is allowed a total property tax exemption on his or her residence homestead if the surviving spouse has not remarried since the death of the armed services member.

Surviving Spouse of First Responder Killed in the Line of Duty

A surviving spouse of a first responder who is killed or fatally injured in the line of duty who has not remarried since the death of the first responder may be entitled to an exemption from taxation of the total appraised value of the surviving spouse's residence homestead. Documentation must be provided.

Late Filing

When filing for the Residence Homestead exemptions, you must file an application no later than two years after the delinquency date. The Late filing includes the Age 65 or Older / Disabled Person Exemption. Applications for 100% Disabled Veterans, Disabled Veterans, or Donated Residence Homestead of Partially Disabled Veteran exemptions but not the surviving spouse of the disabled veteran may be filed not later than five years after the delinquency date.

Benefits of Exemptions

All school districts in Texas grant a reduction of $25,000 from your market value for a General Residence Homestead exemption. Some taxing units also offer additional optional reductions for the homestead exemption. In addition, each school district will grant a minimum reduction of $10,000 from the market value for the 65 or Older exemption. For optional exemptions, the governing body of each taxing entity decides whether it will offer the exemption and at what percentage or amount.

Heir Property

Heir Property is property owned by one or more individuals, where at least one owner claims the property as a residence homestead, and the property was acquired by will, transfer on death deed, or intestacy. An heir property owner not specifically identified as the residence homestead owner on a deed or other recorded instrument in the county where the property is located must provide:

- An affidavit establishing ownership of interest in the property
- A copy of the property owner's death certificate;
- A copy of the property's most recent utility bill; and
- A citation of any court record relating to the applicant's ownership of the property, if available.

Each heir property owner who occupied the property as a principal residence, other than the applicant, must provide an affidavit that authorizes the submission of the application.

Other Exemptions

Disabled Veteran or Survivors of a Disabled Veteran

You qualify for this exemption if you are a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces and your service branch or the Veterans Administration has officially classified you as disabled with a percentage of 10% or more. You must be a Texas resident. Your application can apply to any one property you own on January 1 on which property taxes are assessed. You must complete an application and attach a copy of a current dated letter from the Veterans Administration reflecting the percent of disability awarded. You must file the application by April 30 or late file no later than five years after the delinquency date. A surviving spouse or child may also qualify to continue this exemption; a surviving spouse may continue the exemption if the survivor does not remarry. When the disabled veteran attains age 65, is totally blind in one or both eyes, or has lost the use of one or both limbs, they will qualify for 100% of the maximum exemption amount of $12,000 offered regardless of the disability percentage awarded by the V.A.

A surviving spouse or child of an armed forces member killed on active duty may qualify for this exemption. The surviving child, under age 18 and unmarried, or surviving spouse must be a Texas resident. An application must be completed along with a letter from the Veterans Administration showing the person died while on active duty, copy of your marriage license; a surviving child must attach a copy of proof of age and relationship to the deceased.

Tax Deferral for Age 65 or Older or Disabled Homeowner

If you are a homeowner or heir property owner who qualifies for the Age 65 or Older or the Disability exemption, you may also defer or postpone paying any property taxes on your home for as long as you own and live in it. It is important to note that this deferral only postpones your taxes and does not cancel them. It also accrues eight (8) percent interest annually until the deferral is removed. When the property is sold or the ownership is transferred to the estate/heirs, the taxes and accrued interest become payable. The Tax Deferral Affidavit form is available on this site or you may contact Customer Service at 214-631-0910.

Note: If you have an existing mortgage on your residence, the tax deferral does not prevent your mortgage company from paying delinquent taxes; a tax deferral applies only to the collection of taxes.

Charitable Exemptions

An organization that qualifies as a charitable organization is entitled to certain exemptions from taxation. To qualify, the organization must be organized exclusively to perform religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, engage exclusively in performing one or more of many charitable functions. See the Texas Property Tax Code in Section 11.18 for more details (link available on this site). The application is available on this site or you may contact Customer Service at 214-631-0910.

Religious Exemptions

An organization that qualifies as a religious organization is entitled to certain exemptions from taxation. To qualify, the organization must be organized and operated primarily for the purpose of engaging in religious worship or promoting the spiritual well being of individuals. The organization must be operated in such a way that no individual profits (other than salary) and the organization's bylaws, charter or other regulations must pledge its assets for use in performing the organization's religious functions. See the Texas Property Tax Code in Section 11.20 for more details (link available on this site). The application is available on this site or you may contact Customer Service at 214-631-0910.

Agricultural Appraisal

Land designated for agricultural use is appraised at its value based on the land's capacity to produce agricultural products. The value of land based on its capacity to produce agricultural products is determined by capitalizing the average net income the land would have yielded under prudent management from production of agricultural products during the five (5) years preceding the current year. Property owners may qualify for agricultural appraisal under two different laws. You may refer to Subchapter C, Section 23.41 and Subchapter D, Section 23.51 of the Texas Property Tax Code (link available on this site) for details of these laws or you may consult with the appraisal district. The open-space land (1-d-1) application is available on this site or you may contact Customer Service at 214-631-0910.

You must file the application between January 1 and April 30. Attach a copy of the current vehicle registration receipt to the application. Failure to do so will result in the denial of the exemption. You may protest a denial of the exemption to the Appraisal Review Board. For the purposes of this application, an individual is one person or owner, as in a sole proprietor (not a partner, corporation, or cooperative). Motor vehicle means a passenger car or light truck.
